Vince Eckert (OMA) and I attended a meeting hosted by the USSS WFO this afternoon.

[REDACTED] party vendor at both the RRB/ITC and United States Park Police, Federal [REDACTED] retained by the [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] recommend a briefing to Emily or Rob until later this week when we solidify a few more details. Situation seems fluid but also clear that as of now it will be up to GSA and FPS to figure out security/operations of RRB/ITC, Mellon and Clinton throughout the event... but also got the feeling that [REDACTED]

Highlights/FACTS as we know them...subject to change:

- 1.) a NSSE will not be declared and the USSS will not use additional assets to secure the ITC/Mellon venues that are above and beyond measures to secure the protectees under their watch who will participate.
- 2.) The event will culminate late Thursday evening with an event on the South Lawn of the White House and a fireworks display over the Washington Monument at 11:15 PM (approx). They expect almost 1500 people to attend on the South lawn. Serious concern was raised by the customer about visitor safety during ingress/egress to the south lawn from the 15th Street side of the Ellipse.
 - the Trump International Hotel will serve as an 'hub of operations' for the customer but will not host any of the formal sequence of events.
 - incase of inclement weather, additional speakers may shift to the ITC/Mellon venues to deliver their address to the nation on both Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

3.) the customer agreed to provide through our 3rd party vendor additional money for increased security at ITC/Mellon.... the money will be provided to FPS via an SWA (this consistent with high profile events in the past).

4.) MPD has stated that they will not close the streets or sidewalks in/around the venue area nor will they "move" protesters from public streets unless responding to a crime. Additionally, they denied the customers proposal to create a fully fenced perimeter... However the Park Police may take the fencing material offered by the customer to secure the Fireworks site on the National Mall.

5.) FPS is working on an enhanced security plan for RRB/Clinton/Mellon to include the consideration of suspending public access to the facility during portions of the event. We are well coordinated with them and will advise on all actions that would require us to invoke any of the GSA Administrator's authority to close or partially close a bldg in the case that it is determined by FPS it cannot be secured in its current configuration and the building occupants are facing an increased or unacceptable level of risk.

7.) The RRB and Clinton BLDG FSC's (including commercial tenant reps) have been briefed that there may be an interruption to entrance or typical building operations next week. We keep them posted as we get more information but they were not opposed to suspending public access to the building and thanked us for getting them together this morning.

Next Steps:

Review and approve FPS enhanced security plan, secure additional funds via TCMA, coordination b/w the various entities present today as we continue to build situational awareness.

Vince what have I missed?

“Percentage Rent” shall mean, for each Lease Year, the following calculation: (x) Gross Revenues for such Lease Year multiplied by (y) the applicable percentage as follows: during Lease Years (b) (4) percent; during Lease Years (b) (4) percent; during Lease Years (b) (4) percent; during Lease Years (b) (4) percent; and during Lease Years (b) (4) percent. For the avoidance of doubt, this definition is only a formula for the calculation of the Percentage Rent Difference that may be payable (if any) and is subject to the last sentence of Section 21.1.

“Percentage Rent Difference”, if payable pursuant to Section 5.1(b), shall mean, for any Lease Year, the positive difference, if any, between (a) the Percentage Rent for such Lease Year, and (b) the Annual Base Rent paid for such Lease Year. In the event that the Percentage Rent for any Lease Year does not exceed the Annual Base Rent paid for such period, then the Percentage Rent Difference shall equal zero.

“Gross Revenues” shall mean, with respect to any period, (b) (4)

Brokers See Unprecedented Investor Appetite For D.C.-Area Apartments, But Not Enough Properties For Sale

EDENS Chief Development Officer Steve Boyle to discuss what's next for Union Market at Welcome To New York Avenue Dec. 5

Investors are pouring money into D.C.-area apartments at a rate some veteran brokers haven't seen in their lifetimes, in part because buyers see it as a safe asset class during a recession. The only problem: There are not enough properties to buy.

More Than 40 Ideas, Policies, Proposals And Radical Notions For CRE To Fight Climate Change And Improve Resilience

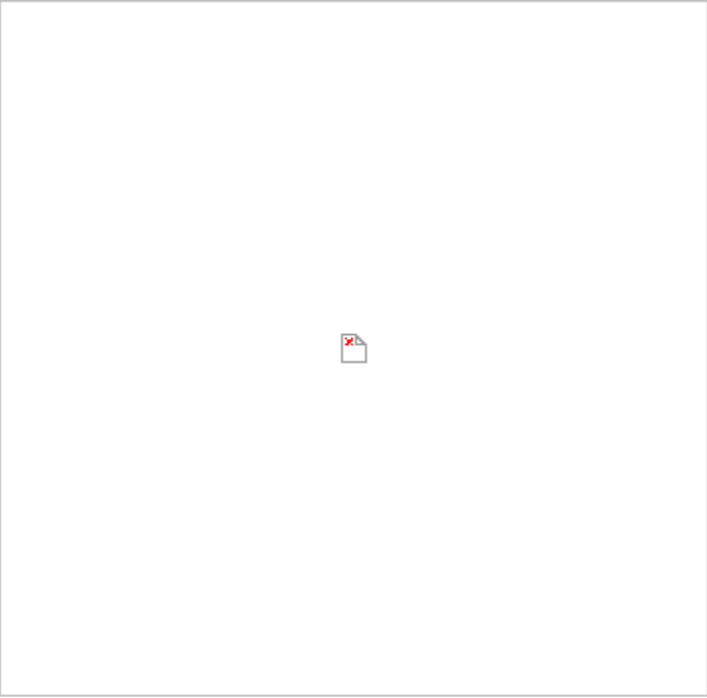

The scientific consensus is that climate change will be the defining global problem of the 21st century. Because buildings play such a large part in greenhouse gas emissions, what the commercial real estate industry does to help solve the problem — or is forced to do — will be critical.

Bisnow dug through the great mass of plans, hopes and dreams of government entities, the commercial real estate industry, nonprofits, think tanks and others to show the scale of what is being attempted or considered in mitigation and building and infrastructure resiliency.

Millennials Haunting Halloween Stores, Attractions As Business Booms

Three years ago, Albert Garcia noticed a change in Wynwood Arts District during October.

The Miami neighborhood has historically been artsy, with the retailers often embracing festive seasons, from Christmas and New Year's Eve to the area's own art and music festivals. But Halloween wasn't really a big deal, and the crowds paled in comparison to those other events, said Garcia, the chairman of the Wynwood Business Improvement District's marketing committee.

No longer.

“The neighborhood has embraced the holiday as a bona fide annual event,” Garcia said. “When we talk about Halloween in particular, I would say it is one of our top five holidays.”

“If we're talking about somewhere around 140 miles an hour in [wind speed], we would expect that would have [caused] near to complete destruction of that building,” he said.

These are likely Miller's questions.

ADMINISTRATOR MURPHY:

- How many historic buildings does the G-S-A oversee?
- In your opinion, how critical is the outleasing process to historic buildings and why?
- We are currently focused on the big outlease projects like the Old Post Office and the Old Tarif Building. While these outleases are important, can you describe some of the other various types of outleases the G-S-A oversees?
- In your testimony, you mention that it is the G-S-As goal to update and modernize facilities. Are these G-S-A facilities on the right track towards completion and ready to promote trade given the impending signing of the U-S-M-C-A?
- Can you please discuss the G-S-A projects in Upstate New York and Southern California?
- Do you have an update on those projects?
